

Please do not weaken the current indiana rule. I believe we should have to opt-in to any call list and simply having an account with a bank should not give them broader rights. We have already made it known that we do not want to be called by virtue of listing our number on DO NOT call. We should then decide if we wish contact by phone call from those we have a working relationship.
Thank you